Testimonials

My experience working with Gillian is that she is very polished, professional in her delivery and very thorough... Gillian brings enthusiasm and guidance to a subject that is so critical to the careers and future successes of men and women around the country...

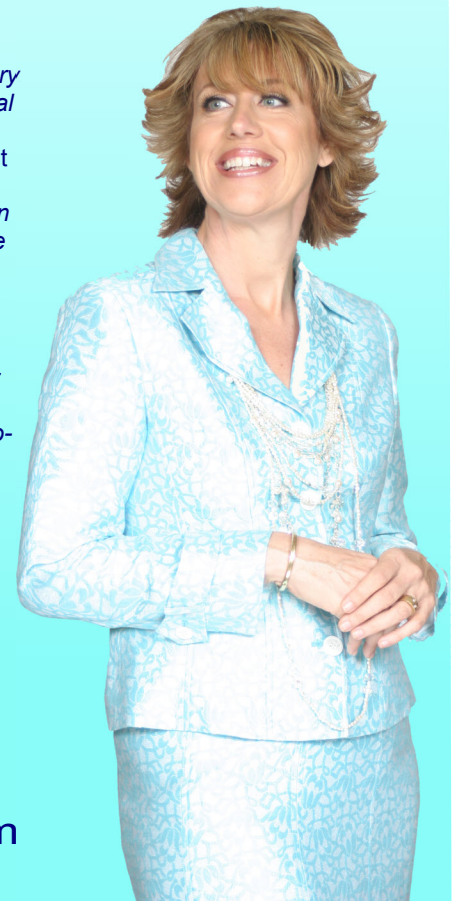

KKC, Seminar Participant

...Ms. Armour’s contributions to the panel focused on career titled “Release Your Woman Power: Career Development and Self-improvement” were well received and amongst the more lively discussions of the daylong event. Armour’s remarks were relevant, succinct and entertaining to the 400-person audience of attendees and sponsors...

BP, Public Relations

...We greatly appreciate the advice and knowledge you passed on to our group of eager participants during your “Public Image” event. From all the feedback we received it was obvious that your message of “boosting confidence by improving your public image” resonated with the class. Thank you for bringing your skills and knowledge to benefit the Women’s Business Center. We value your support!
